

PROSECUTION IN HENRY CASE GAVE SURPRISE IN BRINGING DIRECT TESTIMONY TO EARLY CLOSE

DEFENSE OUTLINED BY WILLIAM T. WILSON INDICATES THAT REAL LEGAL BATTLE WILL COME IN REBUTTAL TESTIMONY AS RELATED TO INSANITY PLEA

Theory of Insanity Will Be Presented by Henry's Attorneys and Supported by Evidence as to Ill Health Prior to Date of Tragedy—T. Forrest Smith Opened Case for State with Clear Statement of Facts Prosecution Expects to Prove—Effort Made to Show De- fendant Was Intoxicated at Time of Alleged Crime—Experts On Mental Diseases to Appear for Both State and Prosecution—Mrs. Ezard and Daughter Calm Witnesses.

At 3:50 o'clock Wednesday afternoon the prosecution in the case of John Henry, on trial for murder, caused something of a surprise by the statement—"We rest." This meant of course that the prosecution had concluded the presentation of all evidence for the time being. Mr. Wilson on behalf of the defense then made a statement outlining in a general way what the attorneys for Mr. Henry expect to prove by evidence.

It was made clear that the whole history of John Henry's life and heredity will be gone into and that the theory of defense is that insanity was the cause of his act in killing Charles Ezard. It is to be shown by witnesses for the defense that John Henry lived a quiet life for 42 years in the vicinity of Woodson and that he was held in the highest esteem by all the neighborhood. It is to be shown that a relative of his died in the insane hospital in 1882; that a few months prior to the crime that State Seeks to Show Intoxication.

The state's effort was to show that John W. Henry had a great craving for liquor on the day of the crime and that he was in search of such liquor and that he had at least one drink. It was proven that the defendant told one or more persons that he had secured a drink from a doctor friend in Jacksonville on the day in question. Dr. Thomas Wilbertson was called upon to testify that the defendant had asked him for liquor or in his presence had talked about his wish to secure liquor. This testimony however was not as strong as the prosecution had hoped for and it was subsequently cut from the record by Judge Jones. The same action was taken with reference to testimony by Mr. Steinmetz who runs a lunch room at Woodson. It was shown that the defendant secured a drink of cider in the restaurant on the day of the crime but the witness testified that it was sweet cider and upon the ground that this behalf of the state, Mr. Smith spoke in part as follows: "I feel that the state and this defendant are to be congratulated on the character of the jurors chosen to try this case. Never before in the years that I have practiced have I been more deeply weighed down with responsibilities than I am now as assistant to the State's Attorney in presenting this case. You have been selected to be trusted with the welfare of this community and with the rights of the defendant. Under our criminal code every safeguard is placed around the rights of the defendant. The judge there must use his best judgment in presiding as the arbiter in this case and the law provides that witnesses shall be summoned to give testimony before any decision is reached.

"The defendant is surrounded with men of skill and ability who must guard his interests at every point. So we all are charged with a grave duty in an effort to see that justice is done to this accused man and this point objected on the ground that Mr. Smith was making an appeal to sentiment. Mr. Smith then reviewed the occurrences within the Ezard home the night of the tragedy and said that evidences would show that Henry, as he brandished a gun pointed at his wife, said "You have run over me long enough and have neglected the children and I will not stand it." He said, too, that it would be shown that Ezard threw up his hands, pleading for his life and exclaimed, "For God's sake John don't kill me for the sake of my wife and babies."

Made Threats.
"It will be made clear," said Mr. Smith, "that Henry threatened to shoot anyone who went to the telephone to call for aid and that Mrs. Henry said to her husband, 'John, you are drunk and I am not afraid of you, but I am afraid of the gun' and that she urged him to hand the weapon over to Ezard. It will be the testimony that Mr. Henry called to Charles Ezard to come and help her take away the weapon from her husband and that a moment later there was a report of a gun and Charles Ezard had been mortally wounded."

"Charles Ezard sleeps today in Diamond Grove cemetery. He is not concerned in these proceedings. His relatives and friends are not behind this prosecution, but it is the people as a whole who demand that the case be investigated and justice done. The blood of Charles Ezard is upon the hands of John Henry and it is incumbent upon him to prove that he is not guilty of the crime charged against him. All I ask is that you give your verdict in the consideration which justice and honesty dictate and I am sure that after you have weighed all the testimony in this case that you can be relied upon to do your duty as it may appear to you in view of the evidence, the argument of attorneys and the instruction of this court."

Mrs. Nettie Ezard wife of Charles Ezard, was called to the witness stand about 9:45 and for practically the remainder of the court session was examined and cross-examined. For a woman who has gassed

HEAT WAVE CAUSES SUFFERING IN CITIES

TEMPERATURES NEAR RECORD BREAK- ING POINTS THROUGHOUT EAST

Ohio and Mid-Mississippi Valley States Also Endure High Tempera- tures—No Real Relief Will Come Until Tomorrow When Disturbance From Northwest May Bring Gen- eral Showers.

WASHINGTON, May 27.—A wave of intense, mid-summer heat, accompanied by enervating humidity settling over the Atlantic states, the Ohio and the mid-Mississippi valley brought temperatures today near record-breaking points and caused suffering in densely populated centers of many cities. Richmond, Va., with a temperature of 96 degrees was the only place where the mercury established a new record.

In Washington the enclosed thermometers at the elevated weather bureau registered 95 degrees, while those on the streets marked 100, the official figure within one degree of the record for the warmest May day since 1870. Three years ago the mercury here reached 96.

In many cities throughout the east the temperatures reached only one degree lower than that in Washington. New York, Boston, Hartford, Albany and Philadelphia all sweltered with the official thermometers showing 94 degrees. In the west, St. Louis, Evansville and Terre Haute had temperatures of 92 degrees.

Slightly cooler weather was promised east during the remainder of the week by the bureau experts to-night but the indications are that no real relief will come until Friday when a disturbance sweeping down from the northwest may bring general thunderstorms.

Heat Wave Broken in New York

New York, May 27.—The heat wave which for two days past has sent the mercury to unwanted heights for May was broken by a violent thunder and wind storm this afternoon.

Two men were killed by lightning and several persons were hurt by falling timbers or other objects blown about by the gale. The wind reached a maximum velocity of 84 miles an hour and much damage was done in New York and in outlying sections.

Several Prostrations in Pittsburgh.

Pittsburgh, May 27.—The thermometer registered 89 degrees here today. One death and several prostrations occurred. A severe electrical storm broke the heat wave in the afternoon.

At Towanda Two Persons Were Probably Fatally Injured

by the storm while lightning caused many fires.

Storm Closes Day at Philadelphia.

Philadelphia, May 27.—The hottest day of the year in this city and vicinity was brought to a close today by a freak electrical storm which set fire to buildings at the house of correction at Holmesburg, private residences in this city, barns at many points throughout the state and shattered numerous trees and poles. A 46 mile an hour wind accompanied the storm. Four deaths were reported as being due to heat and several persons were injured in runaway accidents during the thunderstorm. The maximum temperature was reached at one o'clock when the thermometer registered 94. This is the highest temperature record here on May 27th since 1880.

DECATUR BRAKEMAN RESPONSIBLE FOR BAD WRECK ON THE WABASH

Highball Freight Strikes Work Train on Bridge West of Delphi, Ind.— One Man Is Killed.

Delphi, Ind., May 27.—Highball freight No. 82 on the Wabash struck a work train on the bridge just west of Delphi at 2:55 Wednesday afternoon killing one, fatally injuring another and sending the engine and fifteen cars into the river.

The Dead.

Alva Dills, bridge foreman, Peru, Ind., was killed.

The Injured.

Jacob Wendell, laborer in bridge gang, Peru.

Three of the freight's train crew were Decatur men, Engineer Harry P. Neal, Fireman Charles Drops and Brakeman W. H. Boyer.

Ray Hammond, brakeman of Decatur was responsible for the wreck, failing to flag the freight which was traveling forty miles an hour when it struck the bridge. Hammond disappeared immediately after the wreck and has not been seen since.

The injured and dead men were caught under a falling car, being at work on the bridge at the time.

Neal and Drops escaped injury by jumping.

State Closes Case.

Chicago, May 27.—The state closed its case today against Frank M. Henning, formerly assistant cashier of the Farmers Bank of Schaumburg, Ill., accused of embezzling $40,000 of the bank's funds. Henning is being tried on a specific charge of embezzling $835 in January 1911, before Henning became a partner in the bank. W. W. Whitely, assistant state's attorney feared that a conviction on subsequent charges was impossible because the law holds that one partner cannot embezzle from another.

Announces Candidacy.

Marion, Ohio, May 27.—Former Lieut. Governor Warren G. Harding made formal announcement here to-night of his candidacy for the Republican nomination for United States senator.

GUARDS ACCOMPANY PATMONT ON HIS TRIP TO CHICAGO

Fear That Another Attempt Will Be Made Upon the Life of the "Dry" Worker Prompts Precau- tion.

Danville, Ills., May 27.—An interesting development in the Patmont case was made known by "dry" leaders today who claimed that Rev. Louis R. Patmont has twice recognized in crowds that surround him since his return with two men who dogged footsteps during his work at Westville in the local option campaign this spring and who are believed to have been implicated in the kidnapping of the dry worker March 31st, and holding him prisoner until he was found in an abandoned farm house near Columbia, Monroe county.

Fearing an attempt upon his life, guards were quietly furnished who constantly kept near Rev. Patmont, and accompanied him to Chicago early this morning, where he went to meet his wife and children due there from Newark, N. J., this afternoon.

They expected to go to a lake resort where Rev. Patmont can take a short rest and recover from a threatened nervous collapse.

State's Attorney Lewman to-night said the grand jury will adjourn next Friday and, unless something turned up in the Patmont case, the minister will not go before that body again. The prosecutor intimated that it would require much corroborative evidence before indictments are returned, Rev. Patmont having little evidence of importance to divulge to the grand jury than has appeared in the newspapers.

Dry leaders allege their detectives have discovered some very important evidence and that startling developments may be expected within a few days, but refuse to divulge it.

TESTIMONY CORROBORATES STORY TOLD BY CHAS. MELLE

Solicitor Folk Examines George F. Baker and William Skinner, Who Substantiate Mellen's Statements.

New York, May 27.—George F. Baker, one of the chief powers in Wall street affairs and regarded as the closest personal friend of the late J. Pierpont Morgan and therefore believed to know the details of many transactions of the Morgan firm in connection with New York, New Haven and Hartford railroad affairs, today underwent an examination by Solicitor Joseph W. Folk of the inter-state commerce commission, preliminary to appearing on the witness stand in Washington.

William Skinner who has been closely identified with the affairs of the New Haven for some years, also was examined.

Although Mr. Folk would not discuss the testimony, it was learned from an authoritative source that Messrs. Baker and Skinner corroborated the story told by Charles S. Mellen, former president of the New Haven, when he appeared at the hearing conducted by the commission in Washington in so far as it concerned their own individual actions.

TOO READY TO INTERVENE IN BEHALF OF CRIMINALS

Speaker Declares Unwritten Law or Precedent to Prevent Adequate Punishment.

Chicago, May 27.—Society is too ready to intervene in behalf of the criminals, according to John B. Winslow, former chief justice of the supreme court of Wisconsin in an address to the Illinois Bar Association today. The unwritten law or sentimental nonsense is invoked to prevent adequate punishment, he said.

"Our present system operates to defeat justice and mercy to the criminal is cruelty to the state."

DEPUTY SHERIFFS IN FUNERAL GARB SURPRISE GAMBLERS

CHICAGO, May 27.—A score of deputy sheriffs in funeral garb rode behind a hearse today, passed the lockouts guarding the approach to William McGuern's roadhouse in road park, rushed in and surprised seventy-five standing about a dozen gambling devices. The presence of the watchmen on the roads approaching the place had heretofore prevented the deputies from getting into the building before the players had received warning. The gambling implements were seized as evidence.

GERMAN STEAMER LANDS AMMUNITION

BARBED WIRE AND 1,800,000 ROUNDS OF AMMUNITION PUT ASHORE

Cargo Was Destined For Vera Cruz But Was Deverted to Puerto Mexico, Landed and Reached Federals at Cordoba by Way of Tierra Blanca.—Captain Without a Manifesto and Is Liable to Fine.

BULLETIN.

WASHINGTON, May 27.—Rear-Admiral Badger cabled the navy department from Vera Cruz tonight that the Steamship Ypiranga discharged her cargo at Puerto Mexico yesterday afternoon. The dispatch added:

"No specific information regarding character of cargo discharged but every indication Ypiranga landed her entire cargo of war material."

The Ypiranga carried 250 machine guns and 15,000,000 rounds of ammunition for Huerta. The effort to prevent the landing of this cargo precipitated the seizure of Vera Cruz by the American forces. The liner is now under charter by the German government and was sent to Puerto Mexico, an open port, to pick up refugees.

VERA CRUZ, May 27.—The German Steamer Bavaria has been held here upon her arrival without manifesto at Brigadier General Funston's order. It is estimated that the Bavaria recently put ashore 1,800,000 rounds of ammunition. The cargo was destined for Vera Cruz but was diverted to Puerto Mexico. The steamer reached here Sunday.

The captain could not produce a manifesto claiming it had been taken away from him by the American authorities. He admitted landing the cargo which also included 3,000 rolls of barbed wire.

General Funston understands that the ammunition and wire reached the federals at Cordoba yesterday by way of Tierra Blanca.

The Hamburg-American Steamship Bavaria on May 8th, was reported to be on her way to Mexico with a shipment of arms. Later it was understood that the war supplies were to be returned to Germany. The Bavaria arrived at Havana on May 17th, and sailed two days later for Progreso.

Captain Liable to Fine.

The captain of the Bavaria is liable to a fine under the Mexican laws and these are the laws that are being administered by the collector of the port, Captain Herman O. Stickney. The shipment of arms consigned for Vera Cruz but landed at Puerto Mexico forms a violation of the laws and the absence of a manifesto, a second violation.

The customs officials assert that so far as they know, the arms shipment on the Ypiranga, of the same line, which precipitated the seizure of Vera Cruz by the American forces was still aboard when that vessel left here for Puerto Mexico two days ago.

They assume that there is no possibility that the 250 machine guns, 15,000,000 rounds of ammunition and other material aboard the Ypiranga would be landed, as the liner is under charter of the German government at the present time and was ordered to Puerto Mexico by the German minister to pick up German refugees.

Outside of army circles, where the discussion of such subjects is not permitted, the Americans here are inclined to believe that the Huerta officials desire the Bavaria war supplies for strengthening their northern lines against the constitutionalists.

Mexicans arriving from the capital today report that Jose Maria Lozano, former minister of communications and Querido Moheno formerly foreign minister but now supposed to be holding the port folio of commerce and industry, are missing. Some circles in the capital give credit to rumors that the two ministers have been shot, but the majority of the people in Mexico City believe they have become convinced that the success of the constitutionalists is only a matter of a short time and have decided to retire into hiding from the possible vengeance of the followers of Carranza.

Large Shipment Received.

Mexico City, May 27.—It was reported tonight on high authority that a large shipment of ammunition had just been received making two shipments in less than two weeks delivered to the federals. The government is now well supplied with ammunition.

Predict Protocol Soon.

Niagara Falls, Ont., May 27.—Disposition of the Mexican problem by mediation had so far progressed at the end of today's conferences that it was predicted by those close in touch with the deliberators that a protocol would be signed within a week.

Main issues are understood to have been satisfactorily worked out in principle and only issues of comparatively minor importance have been the subject of conference held today in Toronto before the garden party given to the Duke and Duchess of Connaught and the mediae colony. Enroute tonight from Toronto back to Niagara Falls the mediators communicated the views of the Americans to the Mexican delegates in informal discussions aboard the special car provided for the trip.

he sustained a severe injury on the head; that for a year or more prior to the crime that he had suffered from sleeplessness and nervousness. By other evidence it will be the effort of the defense to show that John Henry was not a sane man on the night that he killed his long time friend and neighbor, Charles Ezard. It is evidently the purpose of the defense to attempt to show by expert testimony certain conditions of mind and health in relation to their client as among the witnesses summoned for the defense are Dr. F. P. Norbury, Dr. H. B. Carriel and Dr. A. H. Dolear.

Mr. Smith Opening Statement.

The morning session of court opened at 9 o'clock and very shortly afterward T. F. Smith made the opening statement for the state. Mr. Smith reviewed the history of the case and showed that the testimony to be presented by the prosecution would make it clear that John W. Henry wilfully and feloniously killed Charles Ezard on January 27th last. He set forth too that the state expected to show that while this act was not in accord with the past life of the defendant, that on the night of the crime he was under the influence of intoxicating liquor. Mr. Smith then detailed the crime and in closing urged on the jurors that they weigh all testimony carefully and in rendering their verdict to remember that they represented the people of Morgan county.

was not intoxicating it was ruled that the evidence was not competent as tending to prove the intoxication of the defendant.

Witnesses For Defense.

The list of witnesses for the defense as read by Mr. Wilson shows the following names:
Dr. F. P. Norbury, Springfield.
Dr. A. H. Dolear, Jacksonville.
Dr. H. B. Carriel, Jacksonville.
Henry Mosely, Jacksonville.
Dr. G. W. Miller, Woodson.
George Cunningham, Woodson.
Wm. G. Russell, Woodson.
Dr. R. R. Jones, Woodson.
Harvey L. Hull, Woodhouse.
James Elliott, Woodson.
Jordan W. McAllister, Woodson.
Clyde Smith, Woodson.
Wm. White, Woodson.
C. C. Self, Woodson.
John Lonergan, Woodson.
Frank Lonergan, Woodson.
John Baxter, Woodson.
Edward Bradley, Woodson.
Mrs. Emma Taylor, Woodson.
Stephen Anderson, Woodson.
James Montgomery, Jacksonville.
Ball Fitzsimmons, Woodson.
The Whitlock, Woodson.
Mrs. Mary Cooper, Woodson.
Miss Meda Gallagher, Woodson.
Jesse L. Henry, East St. Louis.
Alice Harney, Woodson.

There will probably be a good deal of battling between the counsel for the state and the defense as to what can be proven by expert testimony in a case of this kind and the court will probably be called upon to rule as to the admissibility of various forms of questions relative to expert opinion.

Dr. Edward Bowe sits with the attorneys for the state as adviser on questions of expert testimony and Dr. E. L. Crouch will go on the stand as medical expert on behalf of the state.

Mr. Smith Opened Case.

T. F. Smith opened the case on that justice, too, is accorded to this community as a whole. The defendant in this case is charged with the killing of Charles Ezard on the evening of January 27, 1914. There are five counts in the indictment and each one tells in different language that John Henry maliciously and feloniously killed Charles Ezard on the date mentioned. The attorney then read a part of the law which defines crime and another section defining murder. He said it was simply a duty of the state to show that Henry did kill Ezard last January and that the crime was committed feloniously and maliciously. The attorney then went on to review the history of the case and said that Ezard and Henry were farmers living in the vicinity of Woodson and that they had both been accounted good citizens.

Said Henry Drank Liquor.

"Further we will show," he said, "that Henry on the day of the crime at some secret place imbibed liquors; that he boarded a freight train and came to Jacksonville; transacted some business and that while here he was heard to say that it was getting hard to secure whisky in Jacksonville. Further it will be shown that he searched for liquor here and said that he was sorry he did not go to get whisky. Continuing, Mr. Ezard said that the tragedy occurred between 6 and 7 o'clock on January 27th; he heard some one on the east porch at the north end and a moment later John Henry opened the door and raised a gun and pointed it at his wife and said: 'I'll shoot you. You have been running around with ladies' aid societies and neglecting your family and me long enough and I will not stand for it any more. You go and get on your wraps and through such terrible experiences as those which have befallen Mrs. Ezard in recent months and for a woman not especially robust in health, she displayed a wonderful amount of poise and self possession. Her one desire seemed to be to tell all the circumstances of the tragedy as she knew and remembered them and her answers were quick and decisive. The cross-examination by Mr. Haigrove was of a most vigorous kind, but at no time did she show confusion. Mrs. Ezard's testimony during the opening moments she was on the stand and under examination by Mr. Miller said that she was the widow of Charles Ezard and that her family consist of one daughter and two sons. The daughter is 11 years and one son 7 and a baby a few months old. Her husband was 41 years of age at the time of his death. On the night of the tragedy, she did not see Henry until he opened the door of the dining room and kitchen, in which they were eating supper. There are seven rooms in the Ezard home, five of them down stairs and two up. Mrs. Ezard here described the arrangement of the rooms in detail and testified that a sketch of the arrangement of the house as presented by Mr. Miller was practically correct. This was examined by the attorneys for the defense and was admitted to the record of the case as correct.

Continuing, Mr. Ezard said that the tragedy occurred between 6 and 7 o'clock on January 27th; he heard some one on the east porch at the north end and a moment later John Henry opened the door and raised a gun and pointed it at his wife and said: 'I'll shoot you. You have been running around with ladies' aid societies and neglecting your family and me long enough and I will not stand for it any more. You go and get on your wraps and come with me." Mrs. Henry, who was seated at the table, at this moment jumped up and begged her husband not to shoot. She said: "I am not afraid of you, John, but I am afraid of the gun. You give it over to Charley and then I'll go with you." My husband threw up his hands above his head and implored John not to shoot. He said:

"For the sake of my wife and babies, John don't shoot," and tears flowed from my husband's eyes as he said this.

Mrs. Henry told her husband that if he would call for help, and he replied that he would shoot anybody who tried to go to the phone and call for help. Addressing my husband he said: "You are partially to blame for Lou acting the way she does and you uphold her in it." In another minute a shot was fired and it passed, I should say within 3 or 4 inches of my husband and was buried in the wall. The lamp was put out and as my baby in my arms was gasping for breath on account of the smoke in the room, I rushed into the bed room adjoining to see if he was all right. As I arrived in the bed room I heard Mrs. Henry call to my husband to come and help her take the gun away from her husband and then in another moment I heard the second shot.

Scene of Tragedy Described.

"My daughter Hazel was with me in the bed room and we came around through the parlor and my boy Harry was hiding underneath the dining room table. After the second shot I put the lamp in my right hand and the baby in my left and returned to the dining room and there found my husband at full length lying on his back on the porch; his feet just across the threshold. Then I ran to the bed room, put the baby on the bed and ran to my husband and knelt down beside him in another moment I ran to the telephone in the bed room to call for help and John W. Henry was there and grabbed the receiver from my hand. I said, 'but I want help, you have killed my husband.' He replied that he did not care if he had killed him. He asked me where his wife, Lou, was and the last I saw of him was when he stepped across the dead body of my husband and went out through the door."

Then Mrs. Ezard described minutely the furniture in the dining room and told that the wound which resulted in the death of her husband was underneath his right arm toward the back of the right side, and that it was large enough to put her hand in. She said he lived 2 or 3 minutes after being shot. She said that Mrs. Henry sat at the west side of the table and that she preceded her husband to the house 4 or 5 minutes. That Mrs. Henry knocked at the front door and was admitted by Mr. Ezard. The visitor had on a brown skirt, a blue dressing saque, a red sweater and a red hat. She placed the sweater on the bed and then came and sat at the dining table. After the tragedy Mrs. Henry remained at the Ezard house until noon of the day following. When John W. Henry came to the house 4 or 5 minutes after his wife and did not knock but pushed open the east door and the conversation in the room was as he stood on the threshold. The witness said that she had known John W. Henry 10 or 15 years and at the request of the counsel she pointed to the defendant as the man who had fired the shot on the night of the tragedy. She said that the weapon was a double barreled breech loading shot gun. She said she did not see the second shot fired but heard it a moment after she heard Mrs. Henry call her husband to come and help. She testified that her husband was still at the table when she rushed into the bed room and that Henry was only 4 or 5 feet from her husband when the first shot was fired and that the shot must have passed within 3 or 4 inches of her husband's head.

Cross Examination Begins.

The cross examination was conducted by E. E. Hairgrove. Mr. Hairgrove brought out that the witness had lived on the farm near Woodson where the tragedy occurred for 12 years or practically all of the time since her marriage. She was married at the age of 19. She had known John Henry all the time after her marriage and some little time before as at one time she helped in the Henry family for a few weeks. She did not know Mrs. Henry until after her marriage. She said that her father's name was James Soenhowser, and testified that the family of John Henry had been their neighbors for 10 or 11 years. She said that she and Mrs. Henry had been officers in the same church society and that their husbands belonged to the same church and had both been officers of the church. She said further that the men had been boys together and that their children had attended the same school. She knew of no trouble of any kind between her husband and John Henry and all her testimony was of the kind to accord with the desire of the defense to show that only the most cordial relations existed between John Henry and Charles Ezard.

When Mr. Hairgrove asked as to the disposition of John Henry Judge Layman objected to the question and was sustained by the court. The lawyer then asked what Henry's treatment had been of the Ezard family and again objection was made by Judge Layman to the question and sustained by the court. Mr. Hairgrove referred to the testimony given by Mrs. Ezard at the coroner's inquest which was held Feb. 2nd. He then took the witness through the details of describing again the furnishings of the dining room and kitchen and the relative positions occupied by members of the family at the table when John Henry appeared at the door. She illustrated the distance between the dining table and the gasoline stove by comparing the position of the table used by the counsel for the defense and the table used by the reporter, Mr. Engleish. She described how after the first shot that she passed hurriedly between her husband and John Henry who was still at the door, although they were not more than 4 or 5 feet apart. In answer to the question by the attorney as to why she didn't know just how far the muzzle of the gun was from her husband when the first shot was fired she replied that she was frightened and could not remember.

Slight Variation of Statement.

She repeated the details of going from the bed room to the dining room twice and of again going to the bed room to call for help. She repeated the testimony that John Henry had taken the receiver from her hand as she stood at the phone and that when she charged him with killing her husband that he replied he did not care.

To the onlooker the variation between the statement made by Mrs. Ezard on the stand and at the coroner's inquest did not seem to be of a vital character. However the auditor had a feeling that the attorney for the defense was attempting to keep the record clear of any direct evidence that John Henry actually fired the shot which killed Charles Ezard.

Hazel Ezard was first called to the stand at 11:45; she said that she was 11 years old and in view of the fact that she was a child it was thought best to have her qualify as a witness by answering certain questions. These were propounded by Mr. Miller, who brought out that she had finished the fifth grade and had studied the books which are customary in school work of that class. Her answers were such that she was considered by the court and counsel as qualified. At this point, however, it developed that W. W. Gillham had come into the room and the prosecution in order to allow him to keep an engagement in the afternoon placed him upon the stand and reserved Hazel Ezard's testimony until the afternoon session.

Mr. Gillham on Stand.

Mr. Gillham testified that he was a funeral director and had been in business in Jacksonville 16 years. He said that his assistants went to the Ezard home on the night of Jan. 27th, to take charge of the remains of Charles Ezard. He went down the following afternoon and then he described the wounds on the body. He said that the wound was under the right arm and part of the right shoulder blade was injured and that the size of the wound was 3 to 3 1/2 inches across. There was no wound on the opposite of the body. He testified further that interment was at Diamond Grove cemetery and there was no cross-examination by the defense.

Hazel Ezard on Stand.

When court convened in the afternoon Hazel Ezard was called to the stand. The little girl told her story in a clear and straightforward way. She spoke in a soft childish voice and it was difficult for the court and jurors to hear her on account of the noise of passing vehicles. Only in minor details was there any variation in her story in examination by the prosecution and cross-examination by the defense. The witness told of John Henry coming to the east door of their home while the family were at supper on the evening of January 27th, last. She described the way the members of the family were seated at the table and the relative position of the table and dining room as to the other parts of the house. She related, too, the arrival of Mrs. Henry, who preceded her husband to the Ezard home and according to the witness had taken a seat at the table and was eating when her husband threw open the door. The witness said that one shot was fired and that it put out the light which was on the dining table and the shots were embedded in the wall. She said that after Henry opened the door into the kitchen and dining room that he pointed the shot gun at Mrs. Henry and go home with him. That she had been neglecting her family and devoting too much time to the Ladies Aid society and that the children were at home alone and needed her. The little girl said, too, that Henry said to her father that he believed Ezard was upholding Mrs. Henry in her conduct. The witness said that her father did not get up from the table, but that when Henry pushed open the door and pointed the gun at Mrs. Henry that then her father shifted about some in his chair, turning his side and face instead of his back toward Mr. Henry. The witness said that her father threw up his hands and begged Henry not to shoot. She said that she was standing in the pantry door when the shot was fired which put out the light and that then she slipped through the door into the bed room east of it. In cross-examination by E. E. Hairgrove the witness told much of the same story and the attorney attempted to point out variations between her statements made on the stand and statements made at the time of the coroner's inquest. The motive seemed to be to prove that the witness as a little girl was probably so frightened at the time of the tragedy that her recollection was not wholly trustworthy. When asked as to how recently she had read over the testimony that she gave at the coroner's inquest, she replied that this had been done a few days ago. She testified that she did not remember hearing Mrs. Henry say that if Henry would hand over the shot gun to Charles Ezard that she would go home with him. Mr. Hairgrove asked when the witness first recalled that Mr. Henry had first said to her father that he thought that Ezard upheld Mrs. Henry in her attitude.

FOR DECORATION DAY.

Bring Flowers Before 7 a. m. to G. A. R. Hall, West Morgan Street.

The attention of the public is called to Decoration Day and the request of the Grand Army for flowers for decorating the graves of departed soldiers. The veterans are passing away and sooner or later there will be very few with us. It is fitting that the memory of those who are sleeping in the long sleep in our cemeteries should be duly regarded and to that end all who have flowers or can get them are earnestly urged to bring them to G. A. R. hall Saturday morning before eight if possible.

There are three cemeteries in our city; two out on Lincoln avenue and the one east of the city and it is fitting that there should be an abundance of flowers for decorating the graves of departed heroes.

SIXTY YEARS OF MARRIED LIFE

MR. AND MRS. JOSEPH HAIRGROVE HAVE LIVED LONG TOGETHER.

Marriage Was Performed in Cabin Home—Husband Served in Civil War for Three Years—Anniversary Recalls Much Family History.

Married happily for sixty years is the record in the family of William Joseph and Minerva Hairgrove who reside with their son, William N. Hairgrove at 139 Caldwell street in this city.

Mr. Hairgrove was born in Georgia, in May 1832 and Mrs. Hairgrove was born three and a half miles south of Jacksonville, March 9th, 1834. Her maiden name was Whitlock and she was the next child to the late Judge Herbert G. Whitlock so well known in this city and county. The marriage ceremony was in the cabin home of the parents and was performed by Rev. Elijah Kirkman, a Methodist minister for the good lady said she looked on a wedding ceremony by a magistrate as almost a ceremony at all. May 27, 1854 is a ceremony while ago and few persons have spent as much as eighty years in one county, not at any time living outside of it.

After the wedding ceremony the young people went to a farm near Waverly and occupied it till the breaking out of the rebellion when in 1862 the young man enlisted in Company D, 101st regiment Illinois infantry, and was commanded by Capt. Henry Coffman. He is one of the seven mentioned recently in the Journal, Columbus Hairgrove, Alex. Armstrong, W. J. Hairgrove, Samuel Jumper, A. B. Gore, Champion Ferguson and James O. Hamilton and they proudly claim that the 101st was the best regiment in the field and Company D the best company in it and none will dispute the claim.

Mr. Hairgrove served gallantly for nearly three years and was mustered out at the end of the war and came back to Waverly. After a while they spent a year in the vicinity of Jacksonville but preferred Waverly as a home and went back to it for thirty years but last October their dutiful son William of this city, induced them to make his house their home and they did so and are happily spending the evening of their days in peace and quiet.

Mrs. Hairgrove is a devout Methodist and her husband is equally devout as a Baptist, but the religious differences have made no unhappiness in their lives.

They are the parents of four sons, Newton of Virden; Charles, a railroad engineer who was killed a number of years ago; Elmer, a lawyer of Kansas City and William N., well known in this city. They also have thirteen grandchildren and four great grandchildren. The aged couple enjoy excellent health and sickness has seldom invaded their home and today they are practically in full possession of all their faculties.

The anniversary was quietly spent without any special attention being paid to it through the two lawyer sons offered to create a little notoriety for their parents by filing a suit for divorce on the grounds of long continued cruelty as they claimed it would be the greatest advertising they could do but as the charge was so at variance with the facts the matter was not urged. They were glad to have two of their three sons with them and much enjoyed the day.

In looking over a history W. N. Hairgrove found an account of the killing of several men who had aided John Brown in liberating some slaves in Kansas, or Missouri adjoining. One of the men killed was the father of William J. Hairgrove and one was his brother. They had gone to Kansas to help make it free territory and it cost them their lives as a result.

It is little wonder that the family were abolitionists and in favor of freeing the slave and their lives have been in accordance with that sentiment.

session of Tuxpan was gained by the constitutionalists only after a second battle. The federal garrison was forced to evacuate that town nearly two weeks ago by Colonel Guillein, a federal commander, who occupied Tamiagua, north of Tuxpan, was not apprised of this. General Canido Aguilar with a strong force of constitutionalists after hard fighting at Tamiagua, forced Guillein to retreat. The federalists moved southward along the coast to Tuxpan bar. The constitutionalists pursued them and the engagement extended eventually into Tuxpan.

Americans Are Killed.

Washington, May 27.—A letter forwarded today to the British embassy here from Manzanar, Mexico, gave a detailed report of the events that led to the death of O. T. Williams, a British subject and C. R. Hoadley, an American early in May. According to the letter the two men met their death in Arroyo at the hands of a number of natives and with no foreign witnesses present. Hearing that two bars of silver had been stolen from the mine, Neal and his helpers seized arms and went in pursuit of the thieves. When they returned they found a crowd of men at the gates who demanded why they were under arms. As Neal was about to reply he was struck from behind and his rifle was seized. At that moment Patrick Baird, another American and some of the natives fired simultaneously with some natives and a Mexican named Lara fell. It was declared that Lara was struck by one of his own company.

The mine gates were closed and after two hours the crowd sent two members asking the foreigners to give up their arms and promising them protection. That Neal refused to do, saying he did not believe the Mexicans would keep their word.

The crowd grew to three or four hundred and shots were fired at intervals. A federal sergeant finally appeared and offered to take the Americans under guard and his offer was accepted. Later Hoadley and Williams, it is reported were killed by the Mexicans and their bodies mutilated.

Close observation of 500 school boys through a period of seven years to discover the effects of the tobacco habit demonstrated to Superintendent Davis of Menominee, Mich., that the non-smokers averaged from 2 to 10 per cent higher in scholarship and were at still greater advantage in the athletics of the school. Idleness and poor conditions of home life were the almost invariable accompaniments of all cases of smoking and all cases of failure which he observed.

H. B. MYERS AND AGNES WAKELY

GO TO PALMYRA, MO. TO WED

Couple Goes to Hannibal via Wabash and Make Remainder of Trip in Auto—To Be Away Two or Three Weeks.

Efforts of Mr. Harry B. Myers and Miss Agnes Wakely of this city to leave Jacksonville and marry without their friends knowing it, proved fruitless Wednesday. They were seen to leave the city at 1:29 o'clock Wednesday afternoon via the Wabash and it was not many hours before friends here learned that they were to be married. Some heard that they went to Quincy and others that they had gone to Hannibal, Mo.

At the residence of A. W. Baldwin, 426 East North street where Mr. Myers made his home, it was learned that the couple went to Hannibal, Mo., and intended to go from that place to Palmyra, Mo., via automobile and there procure a license and be married. From Palmyra they will go to St. Louis and may be away from Jacksonville two or three weeks.

Miss Wakely is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wakely of 255 Caldwell street, and has been a valued teacher in the second ward school. Mr. Myers is a well known traveling salesman and a former member of the park board of this city. Both have a wide circle of friends who will extend their best wishes. It is expected that they will go to housekeeping at once upon their return to Jacksonville.

ILLINOIS WESLEYAN PROMISED AN ENDOWMENT OF $200,000

Bloomington Institution is to Be Endowed by Mrs. Hiram Buck of Decatur Providing the School Raises $350,000 More This Year.

Chicago, May 27.—Mrs. Hiram Buck, wealthy widow of a minister of Decatur, Ill., has promised to endow the Illinois Wesleyan University at Bloomington with $200,000 providing that school raises $350,000 more in 1914. A campaign quietly has been extending out over Illinois for the past few months to raise this amount. President Theodore Kemp of Illinois Wesleyan has already raised $128,000 in Bloomington. He was assisted by five Methodist ministers of that city.

These ministers are being sent out to the various districts of Illinois to raise the balance of the fund.

One of these ministers, Dr. G. H. Meyers, opened his headquarters in Chicago yesterday at the Great Northern Hotel. Chicago alumni of the school today subscribed a total of $5,000.

Dr. Meyers told the alumni at a meeting today that President Kemp expected to announce on commencement day, June 10th, that only $100,000 of the endowment remained yet to be raised. The four ministers put in the field besides Dr. Meyers are Dr. J. W. Henninger, who is giving his efforts to the territory about Decatur; Dr. T. W. McVety, campaigning about Pontiac; Dr. W. A. Smith, in the vicinity of Springfield and Dr. Parker Shields, throughout the Mattoon district.

Kansas City, Mo., May 26.—The question of the use of fermented and unfermented wine in the communion service today provoked commissioners attending the general assembly of Presbyterian church in the United States (Southern Presbyterian church) into a lively discussion. The advocates of unfermented wine, or grape-juice apparently were victorious.

SOME OFF-SIDE CHUTES.

Those native sons, one James Coffroth in particular, will now be compelled to revise their lightweight decision over track horse Harlem. When Ritchie recently won a decision over track horse Harlem Tommy Murphy, those Californians swamped themselves in their praise of Willie and his prowess as an expert "giant killer" of aspirants for Queensbury honors. To turn the late Joe Gans, in comparison, during his palmy days never was in Ritchie's class as a boxer, hitter, ring general, etc. All of which had a shade at fact in the native enthusiasm. Joe Gans did not make a specialty of sidestepping the hard ones and picking out the dubs. He ever was willing and ready to take anybody, just so long as the box office was certain to offer mazzina in quantity sufficient to make the effort worth while. Up to his last days this was always true of the chocolate colored Baltimorean. It is true, also, that Joe was mixed up in some rather shady ring games—the "lay-down" to Terry McGovern in Tattersall's, Chicago, for instance. His last fight, which Nelson won, was one of the black artist's best, and had he not been nearly three-fourths dead from tuberculosis, Nelson would not today be doing a monologue in vaudeville, nor would he ever have won the lightweight crown. Ad Wolgast, always a package of unstrapped sauerkraut, pushed the Nelson shell into the sewer and grabbed the championship. The Wolverine and his egotistical manager then stalled and held off all aspirants so as to reap a harvest before the footlights. Threats to declare the lightweight title open, gave Ritchie an opportunity. Ad and his manager flung the Californian an easy trial horse. Willie was given the decision on a fluke foul, the nearest accepting the easy way around a knockout. From that day until Tuesday night the champion has sidestepped all of the hard ones, and after long drags, consented to get into the padded enclosure with the easy marks. Like his predecessors, Nelson and Wolgast, he, time and again, arranged to meet Packey McFarland, Jack Britton and Freddie Welsh but when the hour arrived to sign articles and post forfeits he managed to develop a troublesome bunion or had grown some sort of a gathering in his nose—principally a "pious" ooze of citron from his spinal column. White was held cheaply by Ritchie until within a day or two before the encounter at Milwaukee, when he was forced to recognize the fact that he would be called upon to turn loose the very best he had in order to save off the fast-coming youngster from the Ghetto. Tuesday night he tried to "tear loose," but it was all to no avail. White went to Milwaukee to capture Ritchie's number, and capture it he did so decisively that the chances now are that instead of the champion sailing for London on that guarantee of $40,000, win, lose or draw, he will be compelled to remain at home and join the great army of "used-to-be" champions. As a drawing card in England, the late Willie Ritchie would be worth about 30 cents.

The winning of the great Metropolitan handicap by the Bushkin was a big upset for the talent at Belmont park Tuesday. All of the wealthy owners, including Harry Payne Whitney and August Belmont, had added starters—to accompany the horses they had declared to win—in an endeavor to capture this ancient fashionable handicap. The big sorrel-bay son of Hamburg-Slippers, however, was not to be denied, and assisted by a clever ride on the part of Jockey Fairbrother, the comparatively poor man, John Whalen, is today something more than $4,000 wealthier than he was Tuesday morning. The gelding equaled the track record, 1:37 4-5, established by Fashion Plate in his handicap four years ago. Fifteen thousand people attended the spring opening at Belmont park.

Chicago steel mills are being forced to work overtime in puddling steel bands to fit Ping Bodie's top-piece. The native son won a game from the Yankees Tuesday with a home run hit into the Polo grounds bleachers. For the balance of the season Ping will be singing his famous ditty, "I sure can sting that pill."

Vaudevilian Michael Donlin was so unkind Tuesday. He batted for Fromme in the eighth inning while the Cubs were out in the lead. There were two Giants on the paths when Mike came to the bat, and picking out one of Humphries' choices shoots he clouted it so far over Tommy Leach's head in centerfield, Mike almost had time to don his street clothes before the Cub captain could retrieve the ball and get it into play. The three runs resulting clinched the game for New York, and to McGraw that Donlin homer was worth Prince Michael's season's salary.

This will be "hero" day in Dubuque. The stores will close, factories will shut down and all business will be suspended when Manager Rowland leads his Peoria Three-Eyes pennant contenders into town. Rowland is a native of Dubuque, hence this species of fashionable insanity known only in the Iowa river city.

Big Chief Bender on Tuesday received the greatest shock in his long baseball career. He was clouted out of the box in four sessions by Rickie's Browns.

If Clark Griffith makes good his threat of a few weeks ago, the Federals will not be quite so anxious for the services of Walter Johnson. It was printed at the opening of the season that in an interview Griffith declared that once his team had reached the top he would Ed-Walsh Walter; i. e., he would use him every other day in order to keep the team out in front. They are now there, but Johnson has not been heard from regarding the proposition. One thing, however, is certain. While the big Swede may be strong and willing, he is not built from the same kind of steel used in the Walsh make-up and he would crack long before the Big Moose did. Also, he would be foolish to attempt it for all the pennants in the world.

WINDSTORM ENDS FEDERAL LEAGUE GAME AT BALTIMORE

Empire Calls Game With Score in Baltimore's Favor—Empire Mannassau Kicked By Right Fielder Kommers.

Baltimore, Md., May 27.—A windstorm caused a suspension of today's Federal League game between Baltimore and St. Louis while Baltimore was at bat in the sixth inning. After waiting twenty minutes Empire Mannassau called the game with the score 4 to 3 in Baltimore's favor.

St. Louis players protested that it had become light enough to play and during the argument Right Fielder Kommers, who was one of three St. Louis players put out of the game yesterday for disputing a decision kicked Mannassau in the side. The umpire did not retaliate and Kommers was hurried out of the grounds by his teammates. The score: Club: R. H. E. Baltimore 0 20 1 0 1 4 7 3 St. Louis 2 00 0 10 3 6 2 Batteries—Suggs and Jacklitsch; Willett and Simon.

IN FINAL ROUND TODAY.
Versailles, France, May 27.—Francis Ouimet, the American open champion and Henry J. Topping, Greenwich Country Club, Connecticut will meet in the final round tomorrow for the French amateur golf championship. Travers. In the previous round Ouimet disposed of Lord Charles Hope, the holder of the title by 1 up.

WE KEEP YOUR SUIT NEW!

The man who does not have his clothes dry cleaned and pressed frequently,—does not get the full wear out of them.

Long before the clothes are worn out the lapels droop over, the coat front breaks, the sleeves wrinkle and pull out at the elbow, the trousers become baggy and lose their shape at the bottom, and the entire suit looks old and disreputable.

Our service keeps them clean and fresh, keeps them shaped right and fitting perfectly until they wear out. It's not only an aid to good dressing—but a real economy, as well.

Take advantage of it frequently.

STRAY TOPICS FROM OLD NEW YORK

New York, May 28.—Following the close of business on the Stock Exchange at noon today the members participated in an interesting celebration to commemorate the foundation of the old Tontine Coffee House, where the Stock Exchange had its first home. The celebration was conducted under the auspices of the Lower Wall Street Business Men's association. A luncheon and a short program of addresses was followed by a parade to Faunce's Tavern. A feature of the ceremonies was the sealing of a bronze casket containing copies of the famous historical letters, the official program of the day's events, a history of the lower section of Wall street and sketches of the societies and associations participating. The casket is to be given into the custody of the New York Historical society and is not to be opened until the year 2014.

After being lost for more than one hundred years, the original seal of King's college, now Columbia university, has been discovered and restored to the keeping of the university. Until it was found recently in the library of George H. Parke of Williamsport, Pa., it was believed to have been destroyed in the American revolution, when King's college went out of existence, to be revived later as Columbia college. According to the inscription on its obverse side, the seal was presented to King's college by George Harrison, a vestryman of Trinity church from 1762 to 1765. The gift was made and the seal engraved in 1756. For more than one hundred years the relic has been in the possession of the Parke family. It was originally obtained in 1809 by the grandfather of George H. Parke from a man who was employed by the trustees of the college to engrave a new seal.

Lionel Guest and his wife, who is a daughter of the late John Bigelow, have come over for a holiday in New York, before going to their country place in Canada for the summer. A younger son of the first Baron Wimborne, the millionaire coal mine owner, Lionel Guest has elected to spend the most of his years since he attained his majority on this side of the Atlantic. Some twelve or fifteen years ago he was a well known figure in financial circles in that city. For some time he was an active partner in a Montreal brokerage firm and later he gave much time to promoting the Ritz-Carlton hotel enterprises. It was the daughter of Mrs. Lionel Guest, Miss Lucy Dodge, it will be recollected, who created a furore in London society about a year ago by mysteriously disappearing from her home. Just as her family and friends began to fear that it was a second Dorothy Arnold case, Miss Dodge was found living in modest lodgings in the great British metropolis, and satisfactorily explained her disappearance by saying that she had left home because of an irresistible desire to earn her own living.

New York was treated last night to a first view of the annual spring gambol of the Lambs club. Following the matinee performance at the Metropolitan Opera House this afternoon a special train for a week's tour that will include Philadelphia, Boston and four or five other cities, extending as far as Chicago. The offerings of the Lambs this year is quite the most notable in all their career as great entertainers. Conforming to custom the program opened with a minstrel first part, but with many novel features added. De Wolf Hopper acted as interlocutor and the end men included such famous men of the stage as William H. Crane, Douglas Fairbanks, Andrew Mack, Raymond Hitchcock, Thomas A. Wise, William Collier, Frank Lalor, Nat Willis and several others. The serious not of the program was a modern morality play entitled "Experience" and written by George V. Hobart. There were many songs and monologues by individual stars and other attractive features introducing David Belasco, George Broadhurst, J. Martley Manners, James O'Neill, Milton Lackaye, Henry Woodruff and other men who have become famous as actors, playwrights, managers or musicians.

Some interest has been created here by the announcement from Rome that Miss Laura McDonald Stallo, daughter of Edmund K. Stallo of this city and Paris, is engaged to be married to Prince Francesco Rospigliosi, member of one of the old and distinguished families of the Roman aristocracy. Miss Stallo is a granddaughter of the late Alexander McDonald, one of John D. Rockefeller's partners in the Standard Oil company. Mr. McDonald died in 1893, leaving a fortune of about $15,000,000. Half of this vast fortune went to Miss Laura Stallo and the other half to her sister, Helen, who is now the Princess Murat and resides in Paris. The Stallo girls dearly love a title. Soon after she inherited her fortune Miss Helen Stallo became engaged to Nils Florman, a Swede of good family but slender pocketbook, who was earning a living in New York. But she exercised her feminine privilege of changing her mind and summarily broke off her engagement to the young Swede and married Prince Murat. Miss Helen's example has now been followed by her sister. Only six months or so ago the engagement of Miss Laura Stallo to Jefferson Patterson Crane of Cincinnati was announced. But it seems that this engagement did not "take," for now she is to wed the Roman prince.

The developments of the past week or two in regards to the Missouri Pacific situation and the public announcement that George J. Gould, CAPES HAVE ALMOST DISPLACED COATS IN PARISIENNES' FAVOR.

Paris has gone mad over the cape. It is there seen in many fabrics suitable for mild weather wear. It may be of the material of the gown, as in the case of the costume illustrated here, which is carried out in dark blue serge. While the back of the cape is loosely flowing lines, the front is fitted to the figure. A turned over collar of white accompanies the wrap.

representing the family interests, is ready to step down from control and active management of the railroad property, completes the rise and fall of a railroad dynasty. George J. Gould's career as a railroad magnate began in 1892, when the Gould estate passed into his hands as trustee on the death of his father, Jay Gould. The Gould railroad properties have been flourishing in shallow water ever since the troubles following the panic of 1907. For five or six years rumor has followed rumor as to the ultimate fate of the properties, and the final surrender of George Gould came as no surprise. It will remain for the financial historian of some future time to size up with accuracy the real place of the Goulds, father and son, in the development of the country's railroad transportation. Many persons here are acquainted with interesting inside facts relative to the management of the financial end of the Gould system in recent years, but they have never been and may never be made public. But whatever may be said in criticism of the Gould policy, there is always borne in mind this, that George Gould has been an active energetic force in American financial and railroad affairs; that he is no trifler, but a man of ambitious ideas, broad grasp of affairs, imagination and untiring application to business.

TO CELEBRATE DOMINION JUBILEE.

Charlottetown, P. E. I., May 27.—This city, the capital of Prince Edward Island, is making elaborate preparations for the celebration here this summer to commemorate the 50th anniversary of the confederation of the different provinces into the Dominion of Canada. The initial conference which led to the consummation of the confederation project was held in Charlottetown, August 18, 1864. Of those who took part in the conference there is but one survivor—Sir Charles Tupper. It is hoped that Sir Charles, who now resides in England, will be able to return for the celebration. Premier Borden, Sir Wilfrid Laurier and other notable Canadians also will be invited to attend the festivities, which will begin August 18 and continue three days.

NATIONAL FOREIGN TRADE CONVENTION.

Great Assemblage of Delegates Will Gather at Washington.

Washington, May 27.—Several hundred delegates filled the assembly room of the Hotel Raleigh when the national foreign trade convention was called to order at 10 o'clock this morning by Lloyd C. Griscom of New York. The delegates came from all sections of the country and represented a wide variety of manufacturing, commercial, transportation and exporting interests.

The purpose of the convention, which will continue in session two days, is to give expression to the views of men representing the productive activities of the country in regard to the more effective promotion of American commerce in the markets of the world.

Secretary of Commerce Redfield delivered the opening address at a session of the convention this morning. Another notable speaker was President James A. Farrell of the United States Steel corporation. Secretary Redfield explained to the convention his plans to reorganize the bureau of foreign and domestic commerce, so that the bureau may become the basis "for productive effort in developing American industries in every field which is open to them at home and abroad."

One feature of the proposed reorganization is the provision for commercial attaches at each of fourteen designated foreign capitals, and whose business it will be to study commerce and industries of the countries in which they live. The carrying out of these plans, it was explained, will depend upon congress making the necessary appropriations to cover the expense. At the present time congress makes an annual appropriation of $60,000 for the promotion of foreign commerce, which sum Secretary Redfield considers altogether inadequate to the needs of the service.

The remainder of the forenoon session was devoted to an open discussion of the present commercial conditions in the United States, with special reference to foreign trade. Edward C. Simmons of St. Louis led in the discussion. The conditions existing in the different sections of the country were set forth in papers presented by James J. Hill of St. Paul, representing the northern states; by H. G. Herget of Chicago, representing the central states; by Dr. Clarence J. Owens, managing director of the southern commercial congress, speaking for the south; by James J. Arnold of Fort Worth, Texas, representing the gulf states, and by Captain Robert Dollar, representing the Pacific coast.

Among the subjects discussed at the afternoon session were the following: The importance of foreign trade to its railroads, foreign trade as affected by the Sherman law, the federal reserve act and its effect upon foreign trade, the tariff and foreign trade, the relation of the merchant to import and export trade, and government assistance in foreign trade.

Alexander Happenings Always Interest Our Readers.

Topeka, Kas., May 27.—What is likely to be the last great reunion of civil war veterans of Kansas was held today in connection with the dedication of the G. A. R. Memorial building. The memorial building was erected by the state and is one of the finest edifices of its kind in the country. It is three stories in height and constructed throughout of steel and marble. In addition to providing a large auditorium, library and other conveniences for the Grand Army and affiliated societies, the building is to serve as a state museum and a home for the State Historical society and the Academy of Science of Kansas.

SULPHUR DRIES UP ECZEMA AND STOPS ITCHING

This Old Time Skin Healer is Used Just Like Cold Cream.

With the first application of bold-sulphur cream the angry itching attending any eczema eruption ceases and its remarkable healing powers begin. Sulphur, says a renowned dermatologist, just common bold-sulphur, made into a thick cream will soothe and heal the skin when irritated and broken out with eczema or any form of eruption. The moment it is applied all itching ceases and after two or three applications the Eczema disappears, leaving the skin clear and smooth.

He tells Eczema sufferers to get from any good pharmacy an ounce of bold-sulphur cream and apply it to the irritated, inflamed skin, the same as you would any cold cream. For many years this soothing, healing sulphur has occupied a secure position in the treatment of cutaneous affections by reason of its parasite-destroying property. It is not only parasiticide, but also antipruritic, antiseptic and remarkably healing in all irritable and inflammatory conditions of the skin. While not always establishing a permanent cure it never fails to instantly subdue the irritation and heal the Eczema right up and it is often years later before any eruption again appears on the skin.

A number of the roads in the county have been worked in a manner that leaves a lot of loose dirt in the center of the track where it should be smooth. The Vandalia road, the Morton road and some others are conspicuous examples.

The loose dirt should by all means be gone over with something that will leave the center of the track in good condition instead of impassible. A number of motorists yesterday said they had not been troubled in this way though there is considerable cause for complaint in many directions.

The Road to Success.

The best brain effort and indigestion do not go hand in hand. If you would win a lasting success you must keep your stomach in good working order and your bowels regular. This is easily done if you go at it right. Mrs. C. C. Baker, Homer City, Pa., writes: "About two years ago I suffered from stomach trouble and constipation. After I began using Chamberlain's Tablets my condition improved. At the end of a week I could eat and sleep well." Sold by all dealers.—adv.

PRAIRIE STREET PAVING.

The question of paving Prairie street is again on the docket and a majority of the property owners along the petition in question have signed a petition to have the improvement made. The work was called for some years ago but was held back or postponed and now it is again up for consideration.

The board of local improvement held a session yesterday morning and a number of property owners appeared before it and expressed their views. About 300 feet was represented by persons preferring brick, owners of some 400 ft. wanted asphalt and some desired tarvia. Although a good many have not signed a petition there seems to be little strong opposition to the improvement.

The board will have another session this morning and give additional opportunity to all who wish to be heard.

THE GLORIOUS FOURTH.

Is It to be Celebrated in Jacksonville This Year as Usual or Not?

The birthday of the nation is but a few weeks distant and it is high time that steps be taken for its celebration. It will never do for the day to go by unnoticed and now that we have such good conveniences for a satisfactory celebration it is but proper that steps be taken at once for the proper observance of the day.

The celebrations at Nichols park have generally been satisfactory and there is no reason why they should not be continued. There are enough patriotic people in the city to see this matter through all right.

That this expression of our appreciation be published in the daily papers and a copy be sent to Mrs. Browning, to whom we also extend our sincere sympathy in her bereavement.

Bishop Earl Cranston, the senior bishop of the church, preside over the ceremonies and Bishops McDowell of Chicago and Hamilton of Boston delivered addresses. Bishop Alpheus W. Wilson of the M. E. church, South, delivered the benediction. The musical portions of the program were furnished by the Marine band.

The opening of the college building marks the culmination of efforts that had their beginning half a century ago. Even before the civil war the suggestion for a graduate school to be built in the nation's capital was made by some of the leaders of the church, but it was not until many years later that the idea took definite shape. In 1899 Bishop John F. Hurst began the collection of funds and some years later he was able to purchase the tract of land in the extreme northwestern part of the city, where the university buildings are now being constructed. Bishop McCaule later took up the work and when he died it was turned over to Bishop Hamilton of Boston, who was named chancellor of the university and who still fills that position.

TO SEE HISTORY IN PAGEANTRY.

St. Louis, May 27.—Beginning today and continuing each day during the remainder of this week St. Louis is to have the opportunity of seeing practically the whole of her history unrolled before her own eyes and those of her neighbors in laying portraiture and brilliant symbolic display. The pageant, which is declared to be the most elaborate ever attempted in America, is in celebration of the 150th anniversary of the founding of the city by Pierre LaCade.

Seven thousand five hundred performers have been engaged to take part in the series of tableaux and the great picture dramas. In addition to these, hundreds of men and women have been working for months with sketches, costumes and ideas to make the pageant as accurate historically as possible. The plans have been carried out under the general direction of Thomas Wood Stevens, head of the school of drama in the Carnegie institute, assisted by Percy Mackaye, the poet and dramatist, and Joseph Lindon Smith of Philadelphia. Frederick S. Converse of Boston is in charge of the music. The scene of the spectacles is Forest park, where there is a great natural amphitheatre capable of accommodating 75,000 spectators.

GO TO CONVENTION.

Byron G. Graff, Charles E. Dickson, Lew H. Pratt, F. L. Sharpe, L. P. Obermeyer, W. W. Deutsch, Joseph Burgett and A. R. Taylor all went to Peoria yesterday to attend the state convention of the Elks who are to be there today and tomorrow.

A STUBBORN COUGH IS WEARING AND RISKY.

Your system is run down and you have but a low degree of vital resistance when a cough "hangs on" as often happens in the spring of the year. Chronic diseased conditions of the nose and throat result, and a good many cases of lung trouble are directly due to neglected colds. Foley's Honey and Tar is thoroughly effective in cases of stubborn racking coughs, bronchial coughs, hoarseness, tickling throat, bronchial asthma and the chronic coughs of elderly people. It is very healing and soothing to the inflamed mucous membranes, and should always be in the household where there are children, as it is the best and safest thing you can give your child for croup or whooping cough. Foley's Honey and Tar contains no opiates, and that alone recommends it to careful parents. And its superior healing and soothing qualities, and its quick beneficial action, makes it the best medicine for coughs and colds that you can buy. In 25c, 50c and $1.00 bottles everywhere. Do not take any but Foley's Honey and Tar Compound. For sale by City Drug Co. and J. A. Obermeyer.—adv.

Splendid for Rheumatism. "I think Chamberlain's Liniment is just splendid for rheumatism," writes Mrs. Dunburgh, Eldridge, N. Y. "It has been used by myself and other members of my family time and again during the past six years and has always given the best of satisfaction." The quick relief from pain which Chamberlain's Liniment affords is alone worth many times its cost. For sale by all dealers.—adv.

NICHOLS PARK GUN CLUB HOLDS REGULAR SHOOT

Good Scores Made by Marksmen.—Local Club Will Send Representatives to Mt. Pulaski Shoot.

A number of shooters gathered at Nichols Park for the regular shoot held Wednesday afternoon. This shoot afforded good practice to a number of the shooters who intend going to Mt. Pulaski to attend the second shoot under the auspices of the Inter-State Trap Shooters League. Jacksonville was very fortunate in winning the team race in the first shoot held here on May 19-20, and stands a very good chance to win at Mt. Pulaski, Ill.

Below are the scores made:
Shot at Broke
Vickery 50 39
Swales 70 47
W. Zahn 90 82
Meany 80 61
J. B. Corrington 70 60
Perry 60 42
Knollenberg 50 42
Magill 30 28
Obermeyer 50 49
H. Zahn 40 31
P. Corrington 70 63
Greenleaf 30 26

Kumle 30 19
In the handicap shoot for the Stevens trophy, Magill, Perry and Vickery tied and in the shoot off Vickery was high man.

The club will hold another shoot in about two weeks at which everyone is welcome.
A good deal of interest has been aroused since the last big shoot and it may be said that this is one of the cleanest and most fascinating sports that may be enjoyed by any one.

DON'T WANT BASEBALL GAME ON SATURDAY.

Members of Matt Starr Post G. A. R. Pass Strong Resolutions Opposing a Game Decoration Day.

At a recent meeting of Matt Starr Post 378, Grand Army of the Republic, the matter of baseball on Decoration Day was mentioned and without a dissenting voice all were strongly opposed to it. One veteran said that he was an enthusiast and one of the loudest fans in the city, he was opposed to the game that day.

The post then adopted stirring resolutions regarding the matter recalling attention to the sacredness of the day and setting forth the great importance of educating the rising generation in patriotism and respect for the memory of the men who gave their lives for the preservation of the union.

A committee of the post waited on the chairman of Nichols park commission and requested that the game be forbidden. The chairman at once asked the members to meet that evening and invited the G. A. R. committee to appear at the meeting and state their request which they did.

The park commission treated the veterans with the utmost courtesy and expressed a desire to grant the request but the ball club had received permission to use the grounds without any restriction and as a game had been advertised for that day it was out of the power of the park commission to call it off.

They are wonderful.

Report Was Unfounded.

London, May 27.—The report that Gustave Hamel, the British aviator who has been missing since he started on Saturday last to make a flight across the English channel, has been rescued appears to be entirely unfounded. Inquiries made along the coast in the neighborhood of Shields elicited no news whatever and the signal from the fishing boat which was alleged to have picked him up was evidently a misunderstanding.

DRIVERS FOR SATURDAY'S RACE SELECTED AT INDIANAPOLIS

Georges Boillot Heads List of Dare-Devils by Driving Around Course at Nearly 100 Miles Per Hour Speed.

Indianapolis, Ind., May 27.—After three days of the fastest automobile racing ever seen on the Indianapolis motor speedway the thirty drivers who will start in the annual 500 mile race here next Saturday were selected today. Georges Boillot, the French driver, who today set a new United States record on the 2 1/2 mile track, circling it in 1:30.13, led the list of successful drivers.

Boillot drove his car around the course at a rate of a fraction less than 100 miles an hour.

Jules Goux team mate of Boillot's was second having sent his French car around the track 1:31.71 and Teddy Tetzlaff, in an American car, was third.

Ralph DePalma, known as the hard luck driver, and who has been unable to get the required speed out of his machine, qualified on his third and last lap today. He was twentieth in the list and required 1:42.12 to go the 2 1/2. Boillot today ran at a speed faster than ever seen in this country, is the winner of three Grand Prix races in France. Goux won the race here last year and this team is favored in the betting as winner of this year's contest.

Fifteen of the drivers who had entered cars in the race either withdrew or failed in the elimination runs. The pace set by the first cars upon the track and bettered by some of the other cars was so fast that some of the drivers withdrew without attempting to qualify.

Bob Burman drove two cars in the tests and both qualified. He is permitted to select another driver for one of the cars. The track will be used tomorrow for final practice for all the drivers who will start in the race Saturday and on Friday it will be closed so that it may be cleaned and the oil washed off. This done to lessen the danger of the cars skidding.

The successful drivers and the order in which they finished are:

Boillot, Goux, Tetzlaff, Thomas, Dawson, Carlson, Bragg, Wishart, Christians, Wilcox, Anderson, Burman, Duray, Knipper, Haupt, Guyott, Chassagne, Mulford, Richenbacher, DePalma, Mason, Cooper, Brock, Friedrich, Chandler, Oldfield, Keene, Klein, Burman, Grant.
